Mr. R. E. Baker
St. Elmo Church of Christ
St. Elmo Avenue at 48th Street
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Dear Brother Baker:

Please excuse my tardy reply to your kind invitation to come and preach in a gospel meeting at St. Elmo in 1970. I will be happy to come Sunday, June 14, through Friday evening, June 19, 1970. My schedule was already filled for 1970, but as a personal favor to a very dear friend, I am giving you these dates.

Please notice that my schedule will not allow more than Sunday morning through Friday evening of that year. I am convinced that we can have a good meeting during that period of time and suggest that you talk it over with your fellow elders and let me know your decision in the very near future.

We send you our very best wishes for your continued good work in Chattanooga.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
